*Shadows of yesterday,
mirrors of today*

*Four years have come and gone,
and now we're on our own,
The time has finally come
to reap the seeds we've sown.
Our good times here are past;
we've left them all behind;
but the memories will last,
forever to remind.*

To the Graduating Class of 1977:

Although you people are looking back on an experience involving a relatively few years at Southeastern, I am conscious of the fact that your graduation this year represents a decade of operation of the Southeastern Regional Vocational Technical High School.

Ten years ago, in September of 1967, Southeastern was opened as a new high school for an incoming group of students. While the ten years have flown by, many significant things have happened during that period and you have shared such happenings. It is important that for ten years Southeastern has been affecting the lives of many people. Several students who started their careers at Southeastern ten years ago are now married, parents, people who have been part of the working world for years and, in some cases, successful owners of businesses.

Just as they started a marvelous experience in vocational education when they opened the doors of Southeastern many years ago, you are carrying on the tradition of a growing, expanding Southeastern. You have contributed much to your school.

It is my fervent hope that the school has given much to you and, if so, will be a part of your cherished memories for the rest of your lives.

Best wishes for a successful future.

Very truly yours,

Donald E. Graves

"Wait till I get you in class."

The Three Stooges.

"Teddy, that tickles!"

A is for Apple, B is for . . .

3:30

Boy, do I need a break!

Are you serious?

COWABUNGA!

"Show me the way to go home, boom, boom, boom!"

"Hey Paul, check that one out!"

Hi! I'm tall, dark, and handsome.

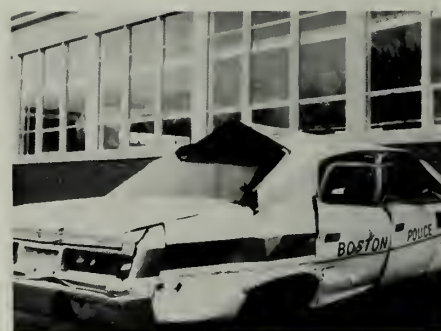

Remember that day . . .

"When you wish upon a star . . ."

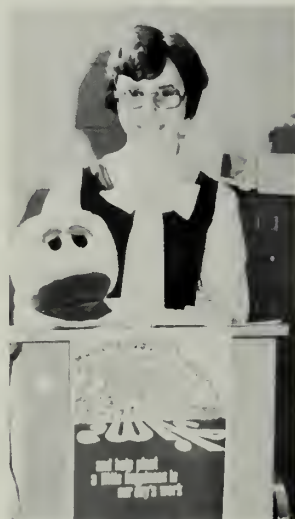

It was a COLD winter.

We can rebuilt it!

Don't look at me like that.

Today's lesson . . .

The library's a real pick-me-up!!!

What's the password?

Our fearless leader.

We've finally graduated from pincurls.

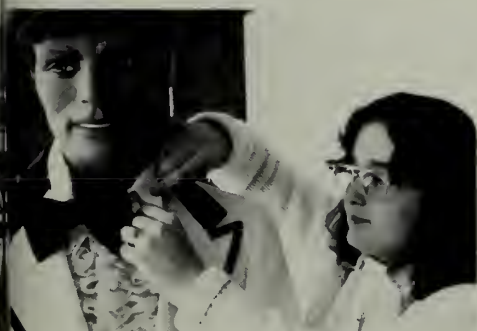

"Did you see that new T.I. student?"

Sandlot Slugger.

We didn't get to comb our hair!

Your tie is ALWAYS crooked!

Why me?

DREAMWEAVER

You got it that time!

Yeah!!!

Two heads are better than one.

Peek-a-boo.

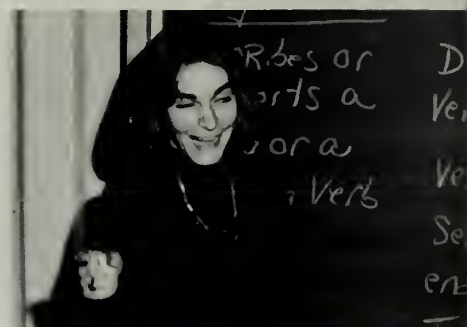

Ow! I stubbed my toe!

Are you kidding?

Stranded.

Why? Because we like you?

Blackboard Blackboard on the wall . . .

E'eek, a mouse!
